COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Joe Manchin, III
U.S. Senator

You were born and raised in the small coal mining town of Farmington, W.Va., graduated from Farmington High School, and attended West Virginia University on a football scholarship. You graduated with a degree in business administration and went to work for your family's business, running a carpet store.

You were elected to the West Virginia House of Delegates in 1982 and then to the West Virginia Senate in 1986. You were elected Secretary of State of West Virginia in 2000, then served two terms as West Virginia's 34th governor beginning in January 2005. While governor, you approved millions of dollars in tax relief for West Virginia's citizens and businesses, fixed the state's workers' compensation system, established the first comprehensive teacher pay package in over 15 years, and dramatically decreased the state's debt. In six years, more than $13 billion in business investments were made, and West Virginia was often cited nationally for its strong fiscal management.

You were sworn into the United States Senate on November 15, 2010, to fill the vacant seat of the late Senator Robert C. Byrd. In 2012, you were elected to a full term in the US Senate. You have served West Virginia as a democratic Senator since then.

You currently serve on the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee, the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, the Senate Committee on Appropriations, and the Senate Committee on Veterans Affairs.

Most recently, you secured more than $191M in Congressionally Directed Spending in a bipartisan appropriations bill that includes six funding bills for West Virginia-specific projects, including two appropriations for the University of Charleston, $1.9M for a law enforcement leadership certificate training program, and $1.4M for campus and safety security upgrades.

You are an avid pilot, outdoorsman, hunter, angler, and motorcyclist. You are married to the former Gayle Connelly of Beckley. You have three children: Heather, Joseph IV, and Brooke. You are the proud grandfather of Joseph V, Sophie, Kelsey, Madeline, Chloe, Jack, Carly, Vivian, Beaux, and Knox.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

John Barnette, Ed.D.

Assistant Vice President for Strategic Initiatives

Born in Gary, W.Va., you graduated from West Virginia State University, earned a master's degree from the West Virginia College of Graduate Studies, and EdD from West Virginia University.

As the visionary and architect of the University of Charleston's online leadership and cybersecurity programs, you helped grow enrollment to over 1,300 today. UC is now an education partner of choice for many U.S. military installations and personnel. Last year, you transitioned to Assistant Vice President for Strategic Initiatives to help UC achieve its goals of establishing and nurturing external partnerships to deliver innovative career-relevant programs.

Prior to your career at UC, you were the CEO of a large behavioral healthcare center. You retired as a traditional National Guardsman holding the Major General rank and served as the West Virginia Army National Guard Commander. In this role, you were responsible for all operations of the West Virginia Army Guard, including the training and readiness preparation of the Guard units for their wartime and emergency response missions. Your skills and knowledge were frequently called upon as you served as the task force commander in 71 FEMA-declared National Emergencies in West Virginia.

You also served as a Task Force Commander, leading the recovery efforts in Louisiana following hurricanes Katrina and Rita. You became nationally known for your technical and leadership abilities.

In addition to Commanding the West Virginia Army Guard, you served as the Wartime Chief of Staff and G-3 (operations officer) for the Eighth United States Army in Korea. Before serving as the G-3, you served as the Personnel Officer (G-1) for the Eight United States Army, Korea.

"It starts with people," Barnette said. "We can develop great strategy and detailed plans, but it's people with an outstanding work ethic and devotion to living the organization's values that get the job done. It's truly a team effort, and that's what sets us apart."

EMERITUS FACULTY

John Barnette, Ed.D.

Assistant Vice President for Strategic Initiatives

Dr. John Barnette is the Assistant Vice President for Strategic Initiatives for the University of Charleston. Prior to this position, he served as the Associate Dean of the School of Business and Leadership and Dean of the Division of Continuing and Professional Development while teaching at the graduate level and mentoring doctoral students. Dr. Barnette also serves as a consultant to several State and National organizations, specializing in healthcare and business management, emergency preparedness, disaster response, crisis leadership, leadership development, emotional intelligence, and strategic planning. He retires from UC after being a vital part of the UC family for over 11 years.

Jay C R Wildt, Ed.D, RRT, RPFT

Natural Sciences Program Director
Associate Professor

Dr. Jay Wildt was a member of the first UC Respiratory Care graduating class, receiving an A.A.S. degree in Respiratory Care in 1982. He worked in the Respiratory Care field for over twenty-five years, then returned to UC in 2001 as the Director of Clinical Education for the Respiratory Care program. In 2005, he transitioned to the Department of Natural Sciences as an Assistant Professor. He has served as Program Director for Natural Sciences since 2018, and as part of a team of Systems Administrators and Instructional Technologists regularly assisting faculty and students.

Dr. Wildt enjoys riding his Harley Davidsons, boating with his wife JoAnne, and traveling. Following his retirement, he plans to spend a few weeks in British Columbia and Alaska. "None of this would be possible without the love and support of my wonderful wife and my extraordinary colleagues at UC. I will never be able to give back as much as they have given me."
